Experts To Conduct Survey As To Need And Type Of Hotel

Local Participation Financially Stressed By Hockenbury

Belle Glade will have a survey to determine (1) whether we need a hotel and (2) how large it should be needed immediately, and how soon major additions will be in order (3) the type of hotel to build and (4) probable cost.

The survey will be made by the Hockenbury System, which has been instrumental in promoting over 200 hotels in the U.S. and Canada, and who are regarded as experts.

The Hockenbury System operates on the theory that a community hotel should be 20 per cent more locally than the cost of a house on a long term mortgage, and they will tell this community how to do its financing.

The Chamber of Commerce entered the contract after a unanimous vote of approximately fifty persons who had gathered to consider the proposition.

Since this meeting it has been reported that two organizations have indicated their interest in building a hotel here. It is felt that if no other organization comes forward soon, it will stimulate the interest of those who are holding back.

Large Crowd Enjoys Legion Barbecue

Approximately 900 persons smoked over 2000 dollars' worth of meat at the Legion Post 100 barbecue, and his cohorts had provided for the St. Patrick's Day party put by J. B. Jones and his committee for the Legion.

They also known of the community spirit of Belle Glade, but it was a relief to them to know just how well this community joined with the Legion in the effort. The Chamber of the Committee all (and that ain't ungrammatical) have the thanks of the local Legion Post 100.

Especially gave the folks an opportunity to carry off cigarettes, candy, cakes and whatnots including a very large bingo game.

The Legion is a big boost to the Legion and Auxiliary both financially and as a morale builder, and those who are responsible for putting it on deserve a hearty "go ahead" congratulations.

Handsome gifts were carried home by the following: C. J. Askey one console radio; Fred Gandy a 1947 Champion outboard motor, E. D. Alford a table model radio; W. C. Gamble a broilermaster.

Photo Studio Has New Ownership

The Lewis T. Creech Studio has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. and Lillian M. Moore, who have come here to make their home. They have operated a camera shop and photographic studio for many years Louis for the past sixteen years Lewis will give this same service here.

Cameras, movie or still, and accessories and repairs will be an important feature to the shop. Also the Moore's are planning to give 24 hours service on developing snapshots at a little later date.

They are specialists in child photography and are equipped for all types of photos which include individual portraits, commercial, and groups, and indoor and outdoor work.

Lady Pharmacist Joins Murphy's Force

Murphy's Pharmacy is very proud of a recent addition to their staff, that of Miss Mary Reeder who is their new pharmacist. She arrived last week from Miami, where she had been employed for the past two years by the Liggett Drug Store. Miss Reeder is a Florida girl and holds both Georgia and Florida degrees. She has worked at St. Luke's Hospital in Jacksonville, and Lane's Drug Co., in Atlanta, Ga. also having traveled and held positions in Colorado, Michigan and Tennessee.

Rock Suitable For State Road Work Available In Glades

A rock pit owned by Starling and Delaney, just south of South Bay covering an area of more than 100 acres, and 30 feet deep, has a very high quality of rock and has been turned over to rock for use by the State Road Department in building and repairing roads in the Glades. It is estimated that there is a ton of sand, which makes it more desirable as a road foundation than other rock which is inferior.

The owners are considering a rock quarry on the future use of concrete rock for building purposes may be offered the public.

Following the completion of the fall rains, have been very busy in the Glades as a whole repairing and rebuilding ditches and cleaning ditches. In many cases water was so high that some shoring and cubical contents of dikes were inadequate for expected water conditions.

The Starling-Delaney firm is working on 2000 feet of the Canal, and 1000 feet for the Kurtz & Reynolds farm north of the Boles and southwest of Belle Glade, and on a third of the Boles. All of these areas are outside established drainage districts and add materially to the acreage of sub-surface improvements in the area.

Owing To Poor Health

Mrs. Lucretia Simonton, of West Palm Beach, who for ten years has been the most efficient instructor in the fourth grade of the Belle Glade elementary school, has given her position owing to health difficulties.

Mrs. Bernice Mackey is substituting in the unit until such time as a regular teacher is provided.

In city school and will return to the community spirit of Belle Glade, but it was a relief to them to know just how well this community joined with the Legion in the effort. The Chamber of the Committee all (and that ain't ungrammatical) have the thanks of the local Legion Post 100.

Coach Cooke's Rams Will Play A 14 Game Schedule

Coach W. Cooke, of the high school athletic department, has been working on the baseball situation lining up potential team strength, for the coming season, consisting of 14 games, to be played within the period of March 23rd to May 7th.

Cooke will have a great good deal of work to do in getting teams and other lead plants kept up, as northerners are now beginning to demand their spring tonic vegetables, mostly in salads or pot liquor entrees.

The schedule as released this week is as follows:

April 23—Belle Glade at Lake Worth.

March 26—Open.

April 30—West Palm Beach at Belle Glade.

April 6—West Palm Beach at West Palm Beach.

April 9—South Broward (location to be announced at a later date).

April 13—Ft. Pierce at Ft. Pierce.

April 16—Lake Worth at Belle Glade.

April 20—St. Ann's at West Palm Beach.

April 27—Homestead at Ft. Pierce.

April 30—South Broward (location to be announced at a later date).

May 4—St. Ann's at Belle Glade.

May 7—Hobe Sound at Belle Glade.

The new ball field will be worked over ready for play and blockers will be moved to the new field in care of the seating area.

Ordinance Gives Sanitary Inspector Clean-Up Power

Offenses Against Public Health, Or Of Nuisances' Bear Heavy Penalties

The City Commission at its meeting two weeks ago, passed an ordinance creating a new board of City Planning, but did not name the chairman of the commission.

At a session of the commission, Wednesday night, March 14, four of the five members were named and confirmed, namely Miss Sam Smith, John S. Kirk, and Mayne Lloyd.

The commission will have considerable importance in that it does not have zoning powers in its control, but as far as recommendations to the commission are concerned, already several important zone requests are on the table for consideration.

The Citizens' Health Committee, appointed by President Weeks consists of Drs. W. J. Buck, Ralph Pipes and a third physician member will be (Continued on page 7)

Community Choir To Present "The Crucifixion"

The community chorus of Belle Glade under the direction of Miss Mary Eleanor E. Weston, of the First Baptist Church, in Belle Glade, will present a matinee of "The Crucifixion" on April 11th.

The soloists in this performance are Dr. Thomas Forster, tenor; Rev. Leonard F. Vanderhoef, tenor; Rev. Dr. David Smith, bass; Mrs. S. J. K. Smith, Jr. is the pianist, and Miss Mary Eleanor Kidder is the organist. The chorus is composed of forty voices.

The "Crucifixion" will be presented again on Good Friday, March 26, at 8 P. M. at the Community Methodist Church, Belle Glade.

The public is cordially invited to both performances. The beautiful music in this oratorio is inspiring, and we know you will enjoy it. Come early for a good seat!

Streets And Roads Given Traffic Lane Markers

A road marking machine was in this vicinity the forepart of the week, running traffic lines over the main highways. Main street of the town of Avenue A was one of the roads marked.

Beans From Glades Begin To Move In Good Volume

Bean picking, packing and shipping took on a little more volume this week, but the heavy load will not arrive until around ten days away. Prices have not yet stabilized, and what remains will be sold.

Mr. Bernice Mackey is substituting in the unit until such time as a regular teacher is provided.

It must have been lack of money or lack of time that brought the negro field workers to accept the new picking wage scale, which the growers established last week. The scales accepted excepted with much fuss or fuming, and while some laborers did some picking, which finally surrendered to the lives of the young men of the order.

Fiscal Policy

The Congress, through its Committee on Ways and Means, has entered upon a thorough study of Federal taxation. The members of this committee are fully aware that the budget is the key to tax reduction.

The cardinal fiscal requirement is that there must be no more additions to the public debt because of peace time deficits, and that there must be a consistent policy of debt reduction through the provision of current revenue sufficient to assure a surplus for this purpose.

Both Federal Taxes and Federal expenditures should be directly related to the needs of a healthy national economy. Tax planning must occur within the budget framework.

Tom Watson Speaks In Behalf Of His Candidacy Here

Stating that he is thoroughly familiar with the needs of the lake section of the Everglades, Attorney General J. Tom Watson, a voter in Belle Glade, voted last Tuesday night that as governor he will give the people of Florida from Key West to Pensacola performance to the fullest extent of the state's resources on a non-political basis.

Characterizing the issue of the campaign as "people vs. politicians," Watson said, "I might speak for hours covering each field of governmental activities and in the end the question would be that in government 'politics' is being employed?" and that the welfare of all the people in the conduct of government.

Citing the fact that people in the cities are "out of touch with the people" Watson said, "You also need," he added, housing, highways, rail lines and mentioned specifically "politics" for immigrants' labor." This should be preserved and strengthened.

The attorney general was introduced by his son, J. Tom Watson Jr., a Belle Glade resident who stated that he had the honor of introducing his father.

Backing bureaucracy, staffed by people appointed and not elected, Watson, declared that the "bureaucrats have taken charge of us. Instead of protesting and convincing our leaders they are supporting us to such an extent that the whole governmental structure has become an intolerable burden to the people."

With the threat of strikes and threats of strikes by "men and women who are being paid the highest wages they have ever received," Watson, declared, "held no brief for that type of application that they have the liberties of the people, nor did he have any sympathy with that type of labor boss, who through non-political control, denied man or woman the right to work."

Now job applications filed during February by workers seeking jobs though the Belle Glade office of the Florida State Employment Service totalled 104, up from 85 in January. These new applications were smaller in number than in January.

No applications filed by women showed the largest increase, rising more than 42 percent above the number filed during the preceding month.

A total of 44 job applications were filed by veterans in February. In January, the number of active registrations of handicapped veterans on file in the local office at the end of February was 30.

where so many of the vegetables are grown for the northern markets, and he was at the expense of our farm project. He stated that the League was mighty proud to have a Branch as active and forceful as the local one had proved to be. There was a group that seemed to be.

Mr. Van Arman took occasion to note some of the projects which the National League is doing for the produce growers. These include better production, better marketing and packaging, and better advertising and displays in large retail centers to attract patrons attempting to buy produce which was not a one track one, but rather of diversified interests, all to benefit the farmer, packer and retailers. What was indicated were bright signs of the burdensome freight rates from the south would be replaced with more favorable ones.

When General Andrew Jackson was the Government head of Florida, he in 1821 established the first two counties in north Florida, namely St. Johns and Escambia. St. John reached from the Atlantic Ocean west to the Suwannee River, and Escambia from the Suwannee west to the Choctawhatchee. Through these counties were established the famed trail between Jacksonville and Pensacola, and which became historic territory.

Historians record that during the period of the War between the States, that Florida was probably depopulated, as most of the men were engaged in the southern army, and what northerners had settled here, sought safety back in their home state.

John Hay, later the great historian, in a speech prepared for President Lincoln, came to Florida in 1863, to make a survey of what could be done for the reconstruction of the state. It was his first attempt at statehood. It was not until after the end of the war that such statehood standing was established by the Government.

The wintering season for the great Ringling shows at Sarasota is not an idle one for those connected with the big top, who number over 1500 people, in all lines of service. Some six thousand yards of fire-proofing tent canvas is worked up into new tents for the coming season. Equipment is painted and gilded. Elephants must be kept in training and the show artist takes their daily care to see that they are used to "show time". Blow torches are used to "seal" the tent off, through which the animal welcomes with joyous trumpeting. The big top always opens its season at Madison Square Garden in New York City.

One of the first railroads constructed in Florida, to run from Sanford to Tampa, had suffered from the early terminals. This road later became absorbed into one of the larger systems.

That wide highway leading to the packing house gives plenty of space for drivers to ramble over most any portion of the width. If it was intended for a four or more way street, a number of citizens have suggested that marking lines be established for safety and safe driving purposes.

An going to be brave enough to predict that when that $3,000,000 school bond issue is submitted to the freeholders of Palm Beach County, that it will be approved by the overwhelming vote, and the approval date will be May 14.

With the land acreage available with ground and the growing areas at hand, under climate conditions favorable, live stock can pasture and bring in untold wealth to the cattle farmers. All these conditions are present in the western part of Palm Beach County. Red Mounts, a county agent, is mighty pleased with the showing made by farms in his territory.

Well, the Herald Advertising Department has gone to work again and from time to time will be introducing Miss Opal Earle as Mrs. Cromatic. During the last week of his bachelor days as we would term them, the Herald office will be a dreamy stage, and that his full attention was not entirely on his newspaper work. I saw him once of his initial calls on the Herald office the crew gave him all the advice and encouragement he could get and had him in prime condition for his Sunday engagement. Here's to you, Bill and Opal, for a happy and prosperous life.

Our sister village town of South Bay is to be commended as being aggressive and progressive. The community wants a water works system and for the same time voted in favor of a bond issue of $100,000 to be paid by overwhelming vote. Mayor Jeffries and his fellow commissioners are to be complimented for their bold issue. Mayor Jeffries states that there will be no delay in selling of the bond issue, after validation, and that contract for the system, can be secured within the bond appro- priation limit.

With Mrs. Ruth Wedgworth (Continued From Page 1) Beach communities, as her activities in a business way in the Glades, and as a member of the Friends Street School Committee, had brought her into favorable public notice.

Out here in the Glades, where she is in demand, and, I am told, know that she is written to hold such an important position as school board member.

She is prepared and capable of doing a fine job in the Glades, but for the entire county as well, for educational and business experience she has the qualifications to make a powerfully member on the county board.

Mrs. Wedgworth has built a vast farming and packing business in Belle Glade, has been cooperative in civic work, and has educated her three children in the schools of the Palokes and Belle Glade, was recently a member of the Belle Glade Lions club, the only woman known to hold such a position in Lionism.

She is an active member in the Woman's Club, and The Business and Professional Women's Club, the PTA, and the Methodist Church societies, and in various and patriotic organizations.

Mrs. Wedgworth's candidacy has met with popular approval and appeal in the Glades area, and an active campaign will be conducted to see that she is made

Glades representative on the

of the new City Planning Board. So far all persons nominated for positions on this important civic body have accepted the appointment.

City Clerk "Dutch" Wallis calls attention to the fact that city taxes are now due and payable, and unless they are paid by April 1, there will be a 10 per cent additional tax, and personal taxes will be advertised for sale. He says he will be at his window ready to sign receipts of payment for anyone who desires to get out from the penalty.

The City administration has purchased a new street caution sign, which will be placed at the north end of the canal bridge, at the intersection of Main and Lake Drive. This precaution is taken to avoid any serious motor wrecks here.

City Building Inspector Willis' records show the following building permits issued by his office thus far this year: Taylor, Sr., a new $4500 dwelling in the Holloway first addition; Roy Lane, a new structure at the intersection of South and First, D-100, $10,000; J. Thomas Brown, a building over in Tedder's subdivision, and Juster Thomas one in the Rutledge addition, each to cost $10,000; E. C. French, proposed addition, $300; E. U. Meeks, store and apartment, Northwest Fifth street, $2500; without plumbing costs, and Kain, a new store front remodeling, $350.

As a lawyer, he is engaged as intelligence and legal officer at the Marine Corps Air Station, Paris Island, where he received a letter of appreciation from the services.

As Judge Advocate and defense counsel, he reviewed court martial cases for the Judge Advocate General of the Navy in Washington. At his request, he was assigned to serve as Assistant Legal Officer for Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, Headquarters, and as a member of the General Court Martial庭。

Without compensation he was the author of a number of city ordinances, including the one prohibiting the sale of articles from children by peddlers dealers without the written consent of their parents.

A graduate of the University of Florida Law School, Judge Willis is also a member of the State and County Bar Associations, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Judge Advocate General's Association.

The three highest persons on grade marking, will be certified to the Postmaster General, and he to the President, for an award.

Demonstrate Card Game For Benefit Of Police Magistrate

The police court session Monday night, was a long walk of regret from those who had fallen into the nets of the law, and as a result of sentences and decisions, $700 was placed in the city's treasury. One old man, ill and without funds, was given a suspended sentence on his promise to be out of the city within 24 hours. He stated he would take only food enough to pick up his hat and bundle of clothing.

Considerable amusement was created when 3 colored men attempted to display the playing of a card game, and show how one of the trio had slipped in an additional winning card into the deck.

A colored man, bearing the surname of Roosevelt, and who spoke a strong Bahamian English, who attempted to take over the management of the theater, and who got angry and profane when he could not, will now be working out his stiff fine with a pick and shovel on the street gang.

Dance Benefit Gives $179.50 For Red Cross

Randal Dickinson, chairman of the local Red Cross drive, states that the house to house collection has got busy on their last month, and will keep busy until the entire town and region is covered.

The proceeds from the dance at the Community Club of the Everglades on Sunday night amounted to $179.50, which he received as a very substantial donation toward the desired quota figures.

Farming Amazes A New York Visitor

Max Bresler, business man of New York City, is a guest for ten days of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bresler, of South Bay. Mr. Bresler has visited other farms in the country, but this is his first trip out into the farming section, and he states that he is impressed with the manager and large scale of operation he finds here.

The Belle Glade Herald

Judge Ed Lake of West Palm Beach is the office of the County Board subject to the Manatee Democratic Primary, and stated that his major objective would be the protection of the inheritances of the deceased.

He pointed out that to accomplish this, a Judge must have not only integrity but also the courage and firmness to do so when the occasion demands.

Judge Lake has been engaged in the general practice of law for more than nineteen years in West Palm Beach, and became a Judge in 1936, except for three years in the United States Marine Corps during the last war. His term of office ended while he was in the service. He announced that he would not seek re-election during the war in order that the people might elect their own Judge. For this reason he returned home unopposed at the polls. Of thousands of cases before him as Judge, only three sentences have been reversed by higher courts.

Freight Rates Project Meeting With Much Encouragement

Luke Fraiser, president of the Vegetable Branch League at the meeting at the Legion Hall, Monday evening, gave out the information that plans made at a recent session of growers and shippers at Orlando, were effective that Florida growers would have as favorable rates as any other portion of the nation.

It is that non-resident trans-

NO ROAD NEEDED

The 4-Wheel-Drive UNIVERSAL Jeep Gets Through to the Job

Whenever men, tools and equipment must be taken right to the job, the "Jeep" is the answer. It goes wherever the work requires—through mud, sand or bad roads and over terrain impossible to cross with ordinary vehicles. It operates with speed and economy on the highway in conventional 2-wheel drive; yet shifts instantly to 4-wheel drive for sure traction and steady pulling over rough country.

POWER WHERE NEEDED

The Universal "Jeep" provides power when and where needed. With power-take-off, it can operate compressors, welders, generators, mixers, blower equipment which can be mounted on it.

Weeks did not favor his permanent retention, not from a personal standpoint, but that he was not a police officer, he should be manned by more efficient officers. By a three to two vote Pennington was confirmed as Chief of Police.

Commissioner Robin questioned the power of authority of R. K. Barlow, acting as a city prisoner guard, after he had not been confirmed as a police officer. Mayor Lloyd stated the reason why he named Barlow was that he was in urgent need of a good guard, and so had named him. Barlow does not have powers of arrest under the constitution. Solicitor Beck backed Lloyd in his power of appointment in these types of city employees. Barlow was then confirmed as a police officer. Mayor Lloyd told the Commission that having had Barlow under him for four years as a police officer, he knew his capabilities, and felt that an error had been made, when Barlow was not confirmed as a policeman.

Building Inspector Buddy Wills was directed to go over the Building, Electrical, Sanitary, and Health Codes, and see if they were being enforced, and recommend in same, and note conflicts in the trade building requirements, so that council could adopt new codes. Wills advised that he had quite a list compiled already.

An emergency "Nuisance" ordinance was passed unanimously, which will give the sanitary officer more power in unmet needs.

No one will be permitted to commit, permit, create or maintain a nuisance by depositing filth, garbage, trash, smoke, offal, sewage, foul waters, dirty water, refuse from manufacturer's runoff, urine, stable manure, decayed vegetable or animal matter, human waste, or other offensive substances determined to be such.

and SPITTING ON THE STREETS, IN STORES, THEATERS, OR PUBLIC PLACES WILL BE ABSOLUTELY PROHIBITED.

County Commissioner Paul Rarden, appeared before the Commission, in regard to the Avenue E, which is now under construction, and asked that the Commission appropriate $2,975 for the City of Belle Glade. The Commission agreed to do so.

Mr. Rardin stated that the Barlow had been built better than originally intended, it being rock and black top finish, of varying widths from 18 to 30 feet, the latter being near the Woman's club and east two blocks from the stop light. He also stated that the South Canal road would also be widened and rebuilt in an acceptable manner.

The Everglades Experiment Station was given permission to haul and dump its garbage at the city dump, at a cost of $50 a year, to the state.

The matter of insurance coverage on city property, now under a binder, was discussed, and concerned involved, will present full data, possibly at the next meeting.
